LABOUR - AGREEMENT.

with Antonio Manuel José Beira, born 29-9-1933, in Redondo.
The employee works as an un-skilled-labourer in the food industry of Albert Heijn N.V., Westzijde 26 in Zaandam.
The agreement became effective on 25.4.1966 and is for an indefinite term, unless it will be finished as described in the Dutch labour laws.
~~The minimum wages are settled by the C.A.O. (Collective wage contract)~~ and will not be less than that of labourers in a similar category, regardless of nationality.

That means in his case f 140.- bruto a week.

The bruto-salary will be reduced by old-age pension, pension, pension, wages-tax, social insurance premium.

Vacation is settled by the C.A.O. and will consist of a vacation payment of 15 days a year.

The C.A.O. has effected a full insurance for illness and accidents of the employee.

Workingtimes will be daily from 07.30 - 12.00 and 12.30 - 17.00 hours, except Saturday and Sunday.

Overtime will be paid extra in accordance with the C.A.O.

The employee is expected to pay his own cost of living.

Expenses for labour-permit are payed bij Albert Heijn N.V., while passport and visa-expenses are for the account of the employee.

Payment of return-travel to Portugal will be guaranteed by the employer, if the employee has worked during one year.

The employer will give all co-operation when the employee desires to send money to Portugal.

Payment of pension will be will be executed by the Pensioenfonds van Albert Heijn N.V. in Zaandam and the old-age pension of the state will be payed by the Raad van Arbeid (Board of Labour) in Amsterdam.

Any possible dispute resulting from this agreement will be submitted to the Detam, The Hague.

Zaandam, 22 juli 1966
